The French Family Band

Guitars/Vocals Trio

Monday, March 9, 2026

Nashville-based but hailing from Australia/New Zealand, this family band features Stuie and Camille French on guitars/vocals, and son Sonny on guitar/vocal.

Taking inspiration from country and western swing icons of decades past, one can hear echoes of Chet Atkins, Anne Murray and Merle Haggard in the covers and originals they perform. When Covid hit, the French Family pivoted to Facebook live concerts from home and developed a following of nearly 180,000.

Since then, the band has appeared on stage at the Grand Ole Opry several times and won four Australian Golden Guitar Awards. The uncommon gifts of Camille, Stuie and Sonny rival the stars of country's Golden Age.

Live from Laurel Canyon

Folk Rock in story and song

Tuesday, April 28, 2026

An endearing evening of live music and narrated stories of some of the most influential songwriters who lived in Laurel Canyon in the mid '60s and '70s.

Their fresh versions of iconic songs, coupled with the stories which inspired the artists and the music, create an insightful, beautiful, humorous and memorable evening.

“Tight harmonies and inside stories from folk and rock’s greatest era separate Live from Laurel Canyon from other tribute bands...” – Rusty Young, MusicWorks, Vero Beach, FL
